

Alex Ocaranza

Telegraph project

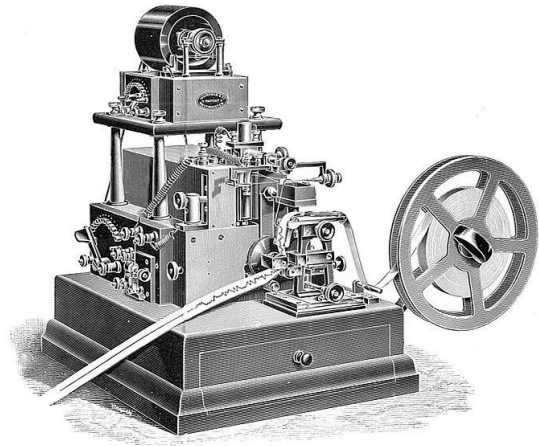

Who invented it?

Who invented it was David Alter.

How does the telegraph work?

The telegraph send sounds to people. The telegraph send calls to people. The telegraph works by electrical signals.

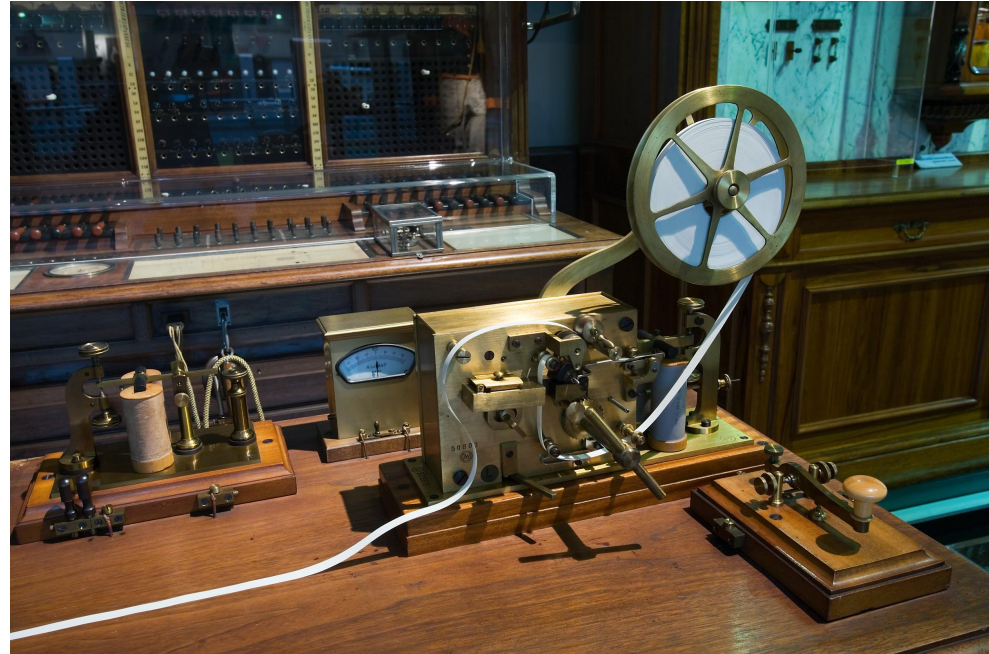

When was the telegraph invented?

The telegraph invented in 1830s by David Alter.

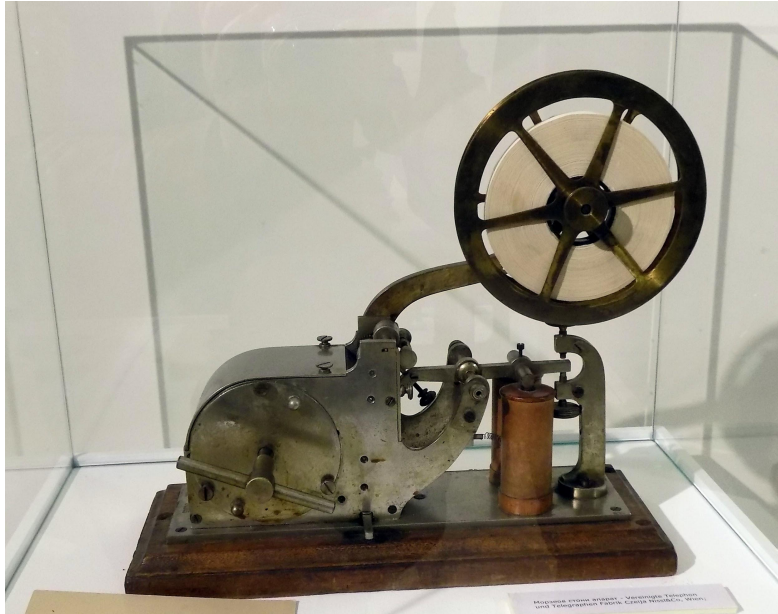

After the telegraph?

After they invented the telegraph then they invented the telephone. After they invented the cell phone.

Why was the telegraph is important?

The telegraph was a important for emergency calls. The telegraph was important to send sounds so they know what is happening.

How does the telegraph work step by step?

By pushing the operator the key down to complete the electric of the battery. This is action sent the electric signal across a wire to a receiver at the other end.

