

Invention of Sewing Machine

By Emily Ter-Matevosyan

Who invented Sewing Machine? When?

- Sewing Machine was invented in 1790 by Elias Howe and Englishman Thomas Saint.

What does the invention do?

- Sewing Machines use thread to sew materials and fabric together.

What problem did Sewing Machines solve?

- The primary purpose of the sewing machine was to decrease the manual sewing work done in clothing companies.

Why is the invention important?

Sewing Machines are important because they

- Increase productivity
- Increase efficiency

Of clothing industries.